

Global Citizen is a non-profit organization dedicated to civic engagement among diverse groups through volunteering, education, community building, service learning, economic opportunity, leadership development and dialogue.

Global Citizen brings together people of all ages and backgrounds through active citizenship and civic responsibility that results in breaking down barriers, building understanding, and fostering ongoing, diverse partnerships.

Global Citizen programs include the annual Greater Philadelphia Martin Luther King Day of Service and year-round MLK365. Issues of focus include poverty, social justice, homelessness, empowering young people, race relations, public health, safety, digital inclusion, veterans, energy and the environment.

MLK365 promotes sustainable civic engagement and volunteer opportunities year-round. As part of the MLK365 program, Global Citizen hosts an ongoing conversation series on race relations. The conversations include our annual Beer Summit, Bridge Walk for Peace, and other special events during the Greater Philadelphia Martin Luther King Day of Service and year round. The conversations are led by expert facilitators and are designed to allow for thoughtful dialogue and discussion about race, class, and privilege.

If you are interested in learning more about Global Citizen's continuing conversation series on race relations, please contact Campbell Bird, Director of Programs and Partnerships, at 215-851-1805 or Campbell@GlobalCitizen365.org